Re: Public Interest Law Fellowship Competition for Summer 2008

Please provide copies of the enclosed application and the following guidelines to interested students.
Applications must be postmarked by April 18, 2008.

The SFLRLA Public Interest Law Fellowship is designed to provide financial assistance to law students working with Bay Area community-based legal service providers to enhance the delivery of legal services to the Latino community. Fellowships will be awarded in areas where there is a substantial Latino population in need of legal services. The Association will give priority to fellowship applicants who meet at least one of the following objectives:

- a. Projects to develop or expand legal services in the areas of housing, employment, discrimination, immigration and naturalization.
- b. Projects that develop materials and training to educate the Latino community about its legal rights and to facilitate its access to the justice system and the courts.
- c. Projects that provide training, referral, recruitment and mentoring to law students.
- d. Creative projects not included within these guidelines will be considered.

AWARD

The San Francisco La Raza Lawyers Association will award between three and five fellowships to law students to fund summer employment in 2008. The amount of each fellowship will vary depending on the individual's financial need, up to $5,000.

The San Francisco La Raza Lawyers Association will also award one bar review course to a current law student who has committed to working for a Bay Area organization serving the Latino community after the completion of the bar exam.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Law students should submit the enclosed application form, a current resume, a description of their proposed project, and letters of recommendation postmarked no later than April 18, 2008.

Fellowship winners will be presented at the Annual Summer SFLRLA Summer Reception in San Francisco in July 2008.
